

PRIVACY AND PERSONAL DATA RETENTION POLICY

I. PURPOSE

The purpose of this policy is to inform the way how Fertur Peru Travel S.A.C. (hereinafter referred to as "Fertur Peru Travel") protects and processes the personal data of customers, passengers, providers, tour operators, travel agencies and employees, collected through the different physical or digital channels, for all purposes expressly communicated.

II. GENERAL INFORMATION

The purpose of Fertur Peru is to provide services related to individual and group trips, by air, land or sea, organization of tours or excursions, arrangement of accommodation, and any other tourism-related activity. For this purpose, during the execution of its activities, the personal information of individual persons is collected, used, managed, transferred, stored and processed, including but not limited to name, passport information, telephone number, email address, country of residence, among personal data, through different physical and digital formats.

In accordance with Peruvian Law No. 29733 – Law on Personal Data Protection – and Supreme Decree No. 016-2024-JUS (New Regulations), and the General Data Protection Regulation GDPR (UE 2016/679), Fertur Peru Travel agrees to ensure and adopt the measures for information security through the best international practices, regarding confidentiality, completeness and availability of personal data provided.

Fertur Peru Travel is subject to the oversight of the APDP (Autoridad Peruana de Protección de Datos Personales / Peruvian Data Protection Authority).

III. DEFINITIONS

- Controller: the natural or legal person, which alone or jointly with others, determines the purposes and means of the processing of personal data, namely, Fertur Peru Travel shall be responsible for the personal data obtained by its different collection channels and provided by its customers and member companies.
- Personal Data: any information relating to an identified or identifiable natural person (the data subject), such as the name, identification number (DNI), passport, location data or one or more factors specific to the physical, physiological, genetic, mental, economic, cultural or social identity of that natural person.
- Processing: any operation or set of operations conducted on personal data or sets of personal data (whether or not by automated means), such as collection, recording, organization, modification, consultation, use, dissemination or otherwise making available, alignment or combination, restriction, erasure or destruction of personal data.
- Right of access: the right of the data subjects to know which information is being processed by Fertur Peru Travel and to obtain a copy of it.

- Right to rectification: the right of the data subjects to have their personal data updated, rectified and/or corrected.
- Right to object: the right of the data subjects to object at any time to the processing of their personal data by Fertur Peru Travel.
- Right to erasure ("right to be forgotten"): the right of the data subjects to have their data erased from any document, file or place.
- Right to restriction of processing: the right of the data subjects to have their personal data restricted to several circumstances provided by law, such as the illicit processing of personal data or when it is no longer required by Fertur Peru Travel.
- Right to data portability: the right of the data subjects to receive the personal data concerning them that have been provided to Fertur Peru Travel, in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format, and the right to transmit those data to another controller without hindrance from the controller.
- Right to not being the subject to individualized decisions: the right of the data subjects to not being the subject to a decision based solely on automated processing, including profiling, which produces legal effects concerning them or similarly significantly affect them.

IV. CONSENT AND LAWFULNESS OF PROCESSING

Fertur Peru Travel processes personal data of the data subjects:

- (i) When they expressly have given consent to the processing of their personal data for the purposes set forth in this document and/or,
- (ii) When processing is necessary for the performance of a contract for the provision of services and products, to which the data subject is party.
- (iii) When processing is necessary for compliance with legal obligations to which Fertur Peru Travel is subject.
- (iv) When processing is necessary for the legitimate interests pursued by Fertur Peru Travel, except where such interests are overridden by the interests or fundamental rights and freedoms of the data subject.

V. PERSONAL INFORMATION AND SCOPE

This policy covers the personal data concerning the clients, passengers, providers, tour operators, travel agencies and employees, provided by them freely, voluntarily and consciously. The data collected and stored are comprised of basic data entered through registration and contact forms and other similar means, such as the name, identification number, passport, gender, age, telephone number, email address, country of residence, among other details collected through the different company-managed channels, which are necessary for Fertur Peru Travel to provide the tourism-related services. In any case, the data subjects may see which personal data are required for the provision of service and which are complementary before providing their personal data.

Automated Decision-Making: We may use automated processing for certain travel recommendations, service customization, and fraud prevention. When automated decisions are made that produce legal effects or significantly affect data subjects, we will inform them and provide the right to human intervention, to express their point of view, and to contest the decision.

Children and Adolescents: When providing services through digital platforms that may be accessed by minors, we make reasonable efforts to verify the identity of those providing consent for children and adolescents under 18 years of age. We require parental or guardian consent for processing personal data of minors.

Source of Data Collection: When personal data has not been obtained directly from the data subject, we will inform them of the source of collection upon their request.

The data subjects shall be solely responsible for providing correct and accurate data. They must be 18 years old or older and fully competent to enter into a contract with Fertur Peru Travel. In addition, the data subjects shall assume sole responsibility for the information provided of third parties, and for ensuring that they have been informed of this Policy of Confidentiality, and for having obtained their express authorization.

VI. GUIDING PRINCIPLES

a. Principle of Legality: In accordance with Law 29733, the processing of personal data is a regulated activity that must be subject to said law and all other pertinent regulating provisions. Collecting personal information through fraudulent, false or illegal means is forbidden.

b. Principle of Consent: In accordance with the principle of consent, the processing of personal data is legitimate when the data subject has given his/her prior, voluntary, express, informed and clear consent. Consent statements that are not directly expressed, like those requiring the assumption or assuming the existence of an intention that has not been expressed, are not accepted. Even the consent given with other statements shall be expressly and clearly expressed.

c. Principle of Purpose: The principle of purpose considers that a purpose is determined when it has been clearly expressed, without confusion and when the purpose of processing personal data is objectively specified. As a personal data bank that contains sensitive data, its creation may only be justified if its purpose, in addition of being legitimate, is specific and consistent with the activities or purposes of the manager of the personal data bank. The professionals processing personal data, in addition of being restricted for the purpose of their services, have the obligation to keep confidentiality.

d. Principle of Quality: The personal data must be true, exact and, if possible, updated, necessary, pertinent and proper for its purpose. It must be preserved in such a way that it remains secure and only for the time required for the purpose of processing.

e. Principle of Proportionality: Any processing of personal data must be suitable, relevant and must not go beyond the purpose for which it was collected.

f. Principle of Security: The manager of the personal data bank and the processor must adopt the technical, organizational and legal measures required to ensure the security of the personal data. The security measures must be suitable and consistent with the processing to be conducted and the category of personal data.

g. Principle of Availability of Means: Any data subject must have the administrative or jurisdictional means required to file claims and enforce their rights, when they are affected for the processing of their personal data.

h. Principle of Proper Protection Level: For the border flow of personal data, a sufficient level to protect the personal data to be processed must be ensured, or at least, similar to what is set forth by law or the concerning international standards.

i. International Transfers: Personal data may be transferred internationally only to countries with adequate protection levels as determined by Peruvian law, or when specific safeguards ensure compliance with Peruvian data protection standards through contractual clauses or other appropriate measures.

VII. PURPOSES OF PERSONAL DATA

Fertur Peru Travel will use the personal data provided by the data subjects for the purposes shown below:

Passengers

- To provide the tourism-related contracted services and products.
- To contact the client (travel agencies, companies and natural persons) during the provision of the contracted services and products.
- To coordinate with providers, travel agencies, cruises and hotels.
- To send information to the clients about the service and/or provisions to be met by the clients during the service, for example, the contracting terms and conditions, tax requirements and/or other conditions that may include the company's internal policies.
- To answer doubts, questions and requests.
- To provide proof of the payments of the non-domiciled IGV before Tax Authorities, through the Information of Passport and Andean Immigration Card (TAM), among others.
- To conduct digital promotion advertising (with consent).
- To analyze and identify the expectations and preferences of travel agencies to buy tickets and services.
- To conduct automated profiling for service personalization and fraud prevention.

Workers and employees:

- The Company will require personal data from its employees to comply with the labor statutory provisions in force and/or development of projects related to Human Resources and Talent Management, such as payroll registration, employee attendance, recruitment, payment of commissions, among others.
- To comply with procedures and prevention policies Against Sexual Exploitation Of Children (ESSNA), Money Laundering, Drug Trafficking and Terrorist Financing.

Tour Operators and Providers:

- To manage the payment of the services and products requested.
- To contact about the provision of services and products requested.

VIII. RIGHTS OF THE DATA SUBJECTS

The data subjects will have the rights shown below:

- a. Only the data subjects may have the rights of information and access, rights to rectification, erasure, object and objective processing of personal data, without detriment to the rules governing representation.
- b. Exercising any of the rights does not exclude from the possibility of exercising any other rights, nor can it be understood as a prior requirement for exercising any of those.
- c. To know, update and rectify their personal data before Fertur Peru Travel or the appointed processor. This right may be applied in case of incomplete, inaccurate, incomplete, partial, confusing data or data which processing has been forbidden or not authorized.
- d. To be informed by Fertur Peru Travel or the appointed processor, upon request, of how their personal data have been used.
- e. To revoke the authorization and/or request erasure of data when the constitutional and legal principles, rights and guarantees are not fulfilled in the processing. Revoking or erasing the information will proceed when the National Authority of Personal Data Protection has determined that Fertur Peru Travel or the processor had contravened Law 29733 and the Constitution when processing the data.
- f. To have free access to your personal data subject to processing, in the terms and conditions set forth herein.
- g. Right to data portability: Data subjects may request that personal data they provided to Fertur Peru Travel be transferred to another controller when processing is based on consent or contractual relationship and is carried out by automated means. This right is effective as of September 30, 2025.
- h. Right regarding automated decision-making: Data subjects have the right not to be subject to decisions based solely on automated processing, including profiling, that produce legal effects or significantly affect them. When such processing occurs, data subjects have the right to human intervention, to express their point of view, and to contest the decision.

IX. CONDITIONS FOR THE PROCESSING OF PERSONAL DATA

a. Authorization from the data subject

In order for Fertur Peru Travel to process any personal data, prior authorization from the data subject is required, which shall be obtained through any means that may be subject to further consultation. These mechanisms may be predetermined through technical means that enable the automated manifestation of the data subject, or they can be written or oral.

Fertur Peru Travel will adopt the procedures required to request, no later than the moment of collecting the data, the authorization from the data subject for processing the data, and tell which personal details will be collected, as well as all specific purposes of the processing.

The personal data available in public sources may be processed by Fertur Peru Travel, provided that it is public information. In case substantial changes are made to the data processing policies of Fertur Peru Travel, with regard to the identification of the responsible person and the purpose of processing personal data, which affect the authorization, Fertur Peru Travel will communicate these changes to the data subjects, before or at the latest when implementing the new policies. In addition, a new authorization shall be obtained from the data subject when the change is referred to the purpose of the processing. For communicating the changes and authorization, any technical means may be used.

b. Cases in which authorization is not required

- Information required by a public or administrative entity exercising its legal functions or by judicial order.
- Public information.
- Cases of medical or health emergency.
- Processing of data authorized by law for historical, statistical or scientific purposes.
- Data related to Vital Records.

c. Provision of information

The information requested by the data subject shall be provided by Fertur Peru Travel in the same way as it was requested.

d. Obligation to inform the data subject

At the moment of requesting the authorization from the data subject, Fertur Peru Travel shall clearly and expressly inform the data subject of the following:

- The processing to which his/her personal data will be subject and its purpose.
- Whether their data will be subject to automated decisions, including profiling.
- The source of collection of their personal data in case it has not been obtained directly from the data subject.
- The optional responses to the questions posed when they are about sensitive data or about data of children and adolescents.
- The rights of the data subject.
- The identification, physical or electronic address and telephone of the controller.

e. Revocation of the authorization and/or erasure of data:

The data subjects may at any time request Fertur Peru Travel to erase their personal data and/or revoke the authorization given for processing the data. It must be done by submitting a request, in accordance with Law 29733 of 2011 and its regulations - Supreme Decree No. 016-2024-JUS.

The request for erasure of data and the revocation of authorization will not be accepted if the data subject has the contractual obligation to remain in the data bank of Fertur Peru Travel.

f. People to whom the information may be provided:

The personal data that have been processed by Fertur Peru Travel may be provided to the following people:

- Data subjects, their successors or legal representatives.
- Public or administrative entities exercising their legal functions or by judicial order.
- Third parties authorized by the data subject or by law.

X. SECURITY OF THE PERSONAL DATA

Fertur Peru Travel complies with the measures of personal data protection required by law and has adopted the reasonable measures according to the current technical knowledge and good practices for the custody and management of information in order to prevent the loss, misuse, alteration, illegal intrusion and theft of personal data provided by the data subjects.

Enhanced Security Measures:

- Maintain an inventory of personal data and processing systems, specifying whether sensitive data is involved.
- Create backup copies at least once a week, unless the personal data has not been updated during that period.
- Implement access controls with unique user credentials and logging of all data interactions, including access information, time of login and logout.
- Apply security measures when personal data are transferred between systems or to third parties.
- Regular security assessments and updates to protection measures based on technological advances and emerging threats.

• X.A. SECURITY INCIDENT NOTIFICATION

In the event of a security incident that results in the destruction, loss, unlawful alteration, unauthorized communication, or exposure of personal data, Fertur Peru Travel will:

- Notify the National Authority for Personal Data Protection within 48 hours of becoming aware of the incident.
- Notify affected individuals within 48 hours of becoming aware that the incident may affect their rights, unless the incident has been resolved or such damage has not occurred.
- Document any security incident, including the related facts, effects, and measures taken to address the incident.
- Maintain records of all security incidents for review by the National Authority for Personal Data Protection.

XI. DATA PROTECTION OFFICER

Due to our processing of large volumes of personal data, sensitive information, and the core nature of our business activities involving personal data processing, Fertur Peru Travel has designated a Data Protection Officer (DPO) in compliance with Supreme Decree No. 016-2024-JUS.

- Handle data subject requests and complaints related to data protection

The DPO's contact information is published on our website and has been communicated to the National Authority for Personal Data Protection.

XII. PROCEDURES

The data subjects or their successors have the right to make consultations and/or file claims before Fertur Peru Travel through a written communication -- in which they must enter their identification details -- sent to the address shown below at any time. Also, they have the right to remove their consent for processing personal data and/or use their rights of access and information, and rights to rectification, object, erasure, restriction, to be forgotten, portability and to not being subject of individualized decisions, through a written communication addressed to Fertur Peru Travel, with the reference "PERSONAL DATA", to the following addresses:

- Physical / Legal Address: Jr. Junin 211, Cercado de Lima, Lima 15001, Peru.
- Email: administrative @ fertur-travel.com
- Data Protection Officer: rick @ fertur-travel.com

Fertur Peru Travel will give response to the consultation and/or claim through the same method of communication.

a) Consultation (Access / Information)

The data subjects or their successors may consult the personal data of the data subject that is found in the database of Fertur Peru Travel, which will provide to the requesting party all the information concerning the data subject that is found in its database.

The data subjects may make consultations at no cost with regard to their personal data whenever there is any substantial modification to Fertur Peru Travel's Policies of Data Processing.

Any consultation will be replied in the same way as they were made within 05 business days following its submission. To comply with this right, the data subject or his/her successors shall submit the form of the Right of Access, which is attached herein.

b) Claims (Requests / Petitions)

The data subjects or their successors who consider that the information contained in a database must be rectified, erased or objected, or when they observe any breach of the obligations set forth in Law 29733 of 2011, they may file a request to the Manager of the Personal Data Bank or the controller of Fertur Peru Travel. To comply with these rights, the data subject or his/her successors shall submit the corresponding form, which is attached herein.

In case that the request does not meet the requirements given, the interested party will be required to rectify the faults within five (05) days following the reception of the claim. In case there is no rectification made after the term is completed, the request will be deemed not to have been submitted.

In case that the information provided in the request is insufficient or inaccurate, Fertur Peru Travel may require additional documentation from the data subject within seven (7) business days following the reception of the request.

Within ten (10) business days after receiving the requirement, starting from the day following its reception, the data subject shall include the pertinent additional documentation to provide grounds for the request. Otherwise, the request will be deemed not to have been submitted.

The maximum response times for the claims according to law regulations are as follow:

- Right of information: Five (05) business days starting from the day following the submission of the request.
- Right of access: Twenty (20) business days starting from the day following the submission of the request by the data subject.
- Rights to rectification, erasure and objection: the maximum response time of the personal data bank manager or controller is ten (10) business days starting from the day following the submission of the request.

Excepting for the response time provided for the right of information, the response times for the other rights may be extended for one time, and for the same time at the latest, provided that circumstances so require. The reason for extending the response time shall be communicated to the data subject within the term to be extended.

c) Requirement of Admissibility

The data subjects or their successors may file a claim before the National Authority of Personal Data Protection only if they have exhausted the procedure of consultation or claim before Fertur Peru Travel.

XIII. OBLIGATIONS OF FERTUR PERU TRAVEL IN THE PROCESSING OF DATA

- Guarantee the data subject, at any time, the full and effective exercise of the right of habeas data.
- Request and keep, according to the conditions provided by law, a copy of the authorization given by the data subject.
- Inform the data subject about the purpose of collecting information and the rights to which he/she is entitled by virtue of the authorization given.

- Take measures towards preserving the information under the security conditions to prevent it from being corrupted or from loss, non-authorized or fraudulent access, consultation or use.
- Take measures so that the information provided to the processor is true, complete, exact, updated, verifiable and understandable.
- Update the information, communicating the processor in a time basis, all news regarding the data that has been previously provided to him, and adopt the necessary measures so that the information provided remains updated.
- Rectify the information that is incorrect and inform the processor.
- Provide the processor, when appropriate, only the data for which processing is previously authorized in accordance with law.
- Require the processor to respect the security and confidentiality conditions of the data subject's information, at all times.
- Process the consultations and claims filed according to law.
- Adopt an internal guidebook of policies and procedures towards guaranteeing that the law is fulfilled and, especially, for dealing with consultations and claims.
- Inform the processor when specific information is contested by the data subject, once the claim has been submitted and the corresponding proceeding has not been completed.
- Inform the data subject, upon request, of the use of his/her personal data.
- Inform the National Authority of Personal Data Protection when the security policies are violated and in case there are risks in managing the information of the data subjects.
- Comply with the instructions and requirements provided by the National Authority of Personal Data Protection.
- Notify security incidents to the National Authority and affected data subjects within 48 hours as required by law.
- Maintain documentation of all security incidents and measures taken to address them.

XIV. OBLIGATIONS OF THE PROCESSOR

The processors shall comply with the following obligations, without detriment to the other provisions set forth by law and others governing their activity:

- Guarantee the data subject, at any time, the full and effective exercise of the right of habeas data.
- Take measures towards preserving the information under the security conditions to prevent it from being corrupted or from loss, non-authorized or fraudulent access, consultation or use.
- Update, rectify or erase the data in a timely basis, in accordance with law.
- Update the information reported by the controllers within five (05) business days following the reception of the information.
- Process the consultations and claims filed by the data subjects in accordance with law.
- Adopt an internal guidebook of policies and procedures towards guaranteeing that the law is fulfilled and, especially, for dealing with consultations and claims filed by the data subjects.
- Avoid disseminating information contested by the data subjects and that was blocked by the National Authority of Personal Data Protection.
- Allow the access to information solely to the people who may have access to it.

- Inform the National Authority of Personal Data Protection when the security policies are violated and in case there are risks in managing the information of the data subjects.
- Comply with the instructions and requirements provided by the National Authority of Personal Data Protection.
- Safeguard the security of the databases containing personal data.
- Keep the personal data processing confidential.

XV. DATA RETENTION PERIODS

The periods for Fertur Peru Travel to keep the personal data of the data subjects shall be as follows, depending on the purpose of the processing:

Travel Service Data: Retained for 7 years after completion of services for tax compliance, legal requirements, and potential insurance claims.

Marketing and Communications Data: Retained until consent is withdrawn or after 3 years of inactivity, whichever occurs first.

Employee Data: Retained for 30 years after employment termination in accordance with Peruvian labor law requirements.

Financial and Accounting Records: Retained for 10 years in accordance with accounting and tax regulations.

Contractual Data (Providers/Partners): Retained for 7 years after termination of contractual relationship.

Customer Service Records: Retained for 3 years after last interaction for quality assurance and service improvement.

Website Analytics and Cookies: Retained for 24 months unless consent is withdrawn earlier.

Security Incident Documentation: Retained for 5 years for compliance and audit purposes.

Data subjects understand and accept that some personal information shall be kept by Fertur Peru Travel in accordance with legal regulations and for the time provided by law. Upon expiration of retention periods, personal data will be securely deleted or anonymized unless legal obligations require continued retention.

XVI. MODIFICATIONS TO THE POLICY

Fertur Peru Travel may make changes and update this policy depending on the news or legislative or jurisprudence requirements and/or needs of the institution, among others. In fact, data subjects are recommended to check this policy in a regular basis and/or each time when they access the company's website.

When substantial changes are made that affect the processing of personal data, Fertur Peru Travel will communicate these changes to data subjects before or at the latest when implementing the new policies, and will obtain new authorization when required by law.

Policy Version: Updated December 2024 in compliance with Supreme Decree No. 016-2024-JUS Effective Date: March 30, 2025 Next Review Date: March 2026
